Commercial Agent treal, November 21 .- To-day your correspondent saw proof-sheets of a remarkable work by Dugald MacDonald, containing his new theory in regard to the motion of the heavenly bodies. He contends that the heat of the sun, acting on a medium space, creates all the motions of the planets and comets. The author says that to him it seems extraordinary how any person could propose any theory to account for the forces which are necessary to keep the planets in their positions before he knew the agreem. their positions before he knew the agency and the amount of force which not only caused the planets to move, but also kept them moving. His ideas are entirely opposite to those of Sir Isaac Newton's on the law of gravity.-Special disputch to the

THE WEATHER REPORTS .- General Myers, chief of the bureau, says that a careful analysis of the forecasts or "indications" thus published, and a comparison with the weather changes afterward occurring within the time and within the district to which each has had reference, has given the average percentage of 86.19 as verified. An average of 90 per cent. is believed to be attainable. The wide diffusion gives these reports may be judged from the fact that they appear daily in almost every newspaper in the United States.

THE MINISTERIAL COMBINATION .- London, November 23 .- The Times's Paris correspondent says reports concerning ministerial combinations vary hourly. The Moniteur says: "We know that personally the Marshal is disposed to enter upon a constitutional and parliamentary course, but certain men, actuated by party interest, invoke his engagements towards the relictionary officials, which they allege bind him irrevocably. We fear the Marshal lacks resolu-

Martial law has been declared throughout the Servian frontier provinces. It is positively stated in official circles that a declaration of war may be hourly

MURDERS ON THE TEXAS BORDER .- Chicago. November 22 .- A dispatch received this afternoon at General Sheridan's headquarters from General Ord reports that on the 20th instant a Mexican was killed on Indian creek, eight or ten miles from Avolas, by a party of Lipan Indians. On the 21st instant two more men were killed at a ranche near Laredo. All the killed are supposed country, MEADE & BAKER, Pharmacists, to have been residents of Texas.

AN IMMENSE CARGO.

The British steamer Hooper. Captain Marrell, which cleared yesterday for Liverpool, takes out the largest cargo that has ever left New York except that on board the famous steamer Great Eastern. It consists of the following, according to her manifest on file at the custom-house: 97,909 bushels of corn, 31,920 bushels of wheat. 12,042 bushels of corn, 31,920 bushels of wheat. 12,042 bushels of peas, 1,600 bales of cotton. 1,700 barrels of flour, 969,-134 pounds of oil-cake, 6,000 staves, 200 therees of beef, 50 tons camwood. 450 bags clover-seed. 152 bags of timothy-seed, and 27 hogsheads of to-bacco, making a total of about 5,000 tons of dead weight.

This steamer was built in 1873 for the purpose of laying ocean cable, and has been constantly engaged in that occupation until the present. She was built at Newcastle, England, and her principal dimensions are as follows: Length, 338 feet; breadth of beam, 55 feet; depth of hold, 25 feet 8 inches, and her registered tonnage is 4,935 tons. In her hold are three immense tanks, respectively 53, 51, and 41 feet in diameter. These were designed for storing the cables, but on this voyage bave been used for storing grain. It is reported that this steamer will coon commence to lay a new trans-Atlantic cable from Brest, France, to Montauk Point, L. I.
